Washington Chat

(Charles Brooks Smith.)
 WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 13.—The terms of the postmasters at Philadelphia and Burlington expire within the next month or two, and there is a fight on for these jobs among leading Democrats in both those towns. There is a delegation here now from each of these places, and they are keeping Congressman Brown worried and busy. He is the appointing power. In the delegation from Philadelphia are J. Hop Woods, William T. Keyes, Ward B. Stalnaker and several others. From Burlington Burton B. Rohrbaugh heads the delegation. The indications point to the appointment of Keys to be the postmaster at Philadelphia and Rohrbaugh to get the same job at Burlington. Congressman Brown is expected to recommend Keys this week. Opposing Rohrbaugh are John A. and James Robinson (not related) and C. Brooks. Representative Hunter Moss delivered a speech on the pending Shackleford good roads bill. He tried to have his own bill substituted for it, but his motion to that effect was ruled out of order. Not getting that he spoke in the advocacy of the passage of the Shackleford bill. Editor Whetzel, of the Preston County Journal, has been requested by the postoffice department to send in his resignation. He has not done so yet, and is not likely to do so, it is believed. Whetzel is a staunch Republican and has been postmaster at Kingwood for a number of years. The Democrats in that neighborhood are anxious to see him fired, and in their anxiety have formulated the usual charges in such cases. They neither reflected on the honesty or the integrity of the editor either as a private citizen or a public official. They are the usual political charges. Representative Davis has succeeded in getting an order establishing a postoffice between Dawson and New Richmond, petitioned for by C. M. Anderson and others. Representative Sutherland has had W. R. Rohrbaugh appointed a rural mail carrier between Queens in Upshur county, and Cubana, in Randolph county. West Virginians in the city are M. T. Roach, Charleston; Hal W. Deple, Spencer; W. G. Morris, Charleston; Mr. and Mrs. Sprigg D. Camden, Parkersburg; and Mrs. J. M. Saunders, of Bluefield. J. Robert Anderson, late of Parkersburg, now connected with the Department of Justice, delivered an address Tuesday at the Metropolitan Presbyterian church to the Brotherhood organization of that congregation.

Frederick Bond, the well known actor, died after a very short illness this week in New York.

Julian Eltinge began this season this week in Atlantic City in "The Crinoline Girl," described as a melodramatic mystery farce, revolving about the adventures of a wealthy young American in Europe.

Tetrazzini and Ruffo recently volunteered their services at a press club entertainment in Boston.

It is now arranged that Ethel Barrymore will make a tour in "Tante," this play to continue indefinitely.

It is reported that Alice Neilson is to be heard again in light opera and that a musical version will be made of "The Little Minister."

A revival of "Ghosts" will be given in New York in the latter part of the month. Mary Shaw will play the role of Mrs. Alving and William Elftodd will return to the stage as Oswald.

"The Land of Promise," in which Billie Burke has been appearing, is to be produced in London.

The latest work of Franz Lehár, the composer of "The Merry Widow," has been produced in Berlin. It is called "Alone at Last," and the music is said to be the best he has yet composed.

Courtnice Pounds, the English actor, is taking the leading part in "The Laughing Husband."

Claude Robinson, of New York City, theatrical manager and part owner of the Robinson Grand theatre here—also brother of Reuben Robinson, of the Robinson-Moore theatrical circuit—is in the city with his wife and pretty daughter, Miss

GRANDMA USED SAGE TEA TO DARKEN HAIR

She Mixed Sulphur with It to Restore Color, Gloss, Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into heavy tea with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and the Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores. Known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with one of these Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, making one small strand at a time. As you do, the gray hair will disappear, and all gray hair have disappeared, or two, your hair become a beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

THE THEATERS

Although the Charles K. Champlin Company is a new one to Clarksburg theater-goers, still it is one of the oldest and best stock companies on the road, and Manager Raymond should be congratulated upon having this strong attraction for the Robinson Grand for next week.

It has always been Mr. Champlin's aim each season to present the very best of the $1.50 dramas at prices within the reach of all. Take such plays as "Alias Jimmy Valentine," the best crowd play ever written; "Madame X," the great mother-love drama; "A Gentleman of Leisure," the play Douglas Fairbanks made such a hit in at the Playhouse in New York; "Shore Acres," the highest priced royalty play ever seen; popular prices; "The Price Women Pay," a play showing the dangers a young girl will encounter while traveling alone in a large city; "Daughters of Men," a drama which tells a strong story of the struggle between capital and labor; "The Ensign," a powerful four act drama depicting scenes and incidents during the Civil War.

The Champlin Company will open a week's engagement at the Robinson Grand theatre Monday afternoon, presenting "Madame X." Monday evening "Alias Jimmy Valentine" will be given an elaborate production. Matinees will be given every day.

Nat C. Goodwin is playing in New York in "Never Say Die."

James Hackett is enjoying one of the most eventful dramatic seasons in his experience in "The Grain of Dust," which will appear at the Robinson Grand Saturday afternoon and night. Mr. Hackett will come here with a strictly all-American company which stands out noticeably at this time, when so much is being said and printed of the English invasion of our stage.

Mr. Hackett is most admirably cast for the role of Frederick Norman, the young corporation lawyer, whose career forms the foundation of the story of the play. Those who remember Mr. Hackett's stage characterization of John Glade in "John Glade's Honor," "Rupert of Mentzau," "Sampson," "The Wells of Jericho" and "The Prisoner of Zenda" will know what to expect when it is said that the character of Frederick Norman is probably his greatest stage portrayal.

Minnie Palmer is about to produce five new vaudeville acts.

The Society of American Dramatists and Composers recently gave a reception to William H. Crane and the members of the New Henrietta Company and to Mrs. Bronson Howard, widow of the author. Among the guests were Selena Fetter Royle, Mrs. Stuart Robson, Mrs. Charles Hoyt, Henry Bergman and Frank Tanshill, members of the original company. Rida Johnson Young was among the hostesses of the occasion.

BILLIARDS

Johnson Wins.
 In the billiard match played at the Brunswick pool and billiard parlor on Pike street last evening Thomas Johnson, city champion, defeated Lloyd, of New York City, the final score being 200 to 145. The game was featured by many fine shots by both contestants.

BOWLING NEWS

Johnson Wins Three Games.
 The Donohue and Johnson duck pin team in the city league won three games from the Rader and Dean Tailors team on the Cere alley last evening. The three victories for the Donohue and Johnson team were due to the phenomenal rolling of Captain Johnson of the team, who rolled 422 in the three games for an average of 144.

The winning of the three games last evening puts the Donohue and Johnson team in the running for first position. If Captain Johnson and his team duplicates their performance of last night many times it is a sure bet that they will be in first place.
